EMERGENCY POWERS AND EMERGENCY BYLAWS

The Board of Directors may adopt By-laws to be effective only in an emergency. An emergency exists if a quorum of the Land Bank's directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event. The emergency By-laws may make all provisions necessary for managing the Corporation during an emergency, including procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors, quorum requirements for the meeting, and designation of additional or substitute director(s). The Board of Directors, either before or during any such emergency may provide, and from time to time modify lines of succession if during such emergency any or all officers or agents of the Land Bank are for any reason rendered incapable of discharging their duties. All provisions of the regular By-laws consistent with the emergency By-laws remain effective during the emergency. The emergency By-laws are not effective after the emergency ends. Actions taken by the Land Bank in good faith in accordance with the emergency By-law have the effect of binding the Land Bank and may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent. In anticipation of or during any emergency, the Board of Directors may modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any director, officer, employee of agent; relocate the principal office or designate alternative principal offices of regional offices or authorize the officers to do so. Unless emergency By-laws otherwise provide, it is hereby provided that:

- (i) Notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors need be given only to those Directors who it is practicable to reach and may be given in any practicable manner;
- (ii) One or more officers of the corporation present at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be deemed to be Directors of the meeting in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority as necessary to achieve a quorum; and

- (iii) The Director or Directors in attendance at a meeting or any greater number affixed by the emergency By-laws constitute a quorum.

Corporate action taken in good faith during an emergency described herein to further the ordinary affairs of the corporation bind the corporation and may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, office employee or agent. An officer, director or employee acting in accordance with any emergency Bylaws is only liable for willful misconduct.

Section 1. Dividends.

No dividend may be paid nor any part of the income or profit of the Land Bank may be distributed to its members, directors, or officers.

Section 2. Compensation.

The Association may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its staff, directors or officers for services rendered, and upon dissolution or final liquidation, may make distributions as permitted under New York Law. ARTICLE XIII TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS

SECTION 1.

The Corporation shall make no purchase of real property, nor sell, mortgage, lease away or otherwise dispose of its real property, unless authorized by a vote of two-thirds of the Board of Directors. SECTION 2.

Whenever the lawful activities of the corporation involve, among other things, the charging of fees or prices for its services or products, it shall have the right to receive such income and, in so doing, may make incidental revenue. All such incidental revenues shall be applied to the maintenance and operation of the lawful activities of the corporation, and in no case shall be divided or distributed in any manner whatsoever among the directors or officers of the corporation.
